Fact Sheet

Established in 1982, St. Joseph Health (SJH) is a not-for-profit, integrated Catholic health care delivery system sponsored by the St. Joseph Health Ministry. The roots of the health care organization date back more than 100 years to 1912 when a handful of Midwestern religious women, who became the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange, traveled across the country to open a school and eventually a small hospital in the lumber town of Eureka, Calif.

Today, SJH continues its work in the tradition of the Sisters through our acute care hospitals, primary and specialty care offices, home health care, rehabilitation programs, and many community outreach and wellness programs. In each community it touches, SJH reaches out to care for the poor and vulnerable. One important way we do this is through a comprehensive community benefit program, which includes health and other social programs and donations, health education, charity care and more.

Based in Irvine, Calif., SJH serves 10 distinct communities within three regions – Northern California, Southern California and West Texas/Eastern New Mexico. Throughout these regions of care, SJH strives to provide perfect care while building the healthiest communities and ensuring every encounter is sacred. These extraordinary efforts have been recognized locally and nationally, including distinctions in US News & World Report and Magnet recognition.

SJH is comprised of dedicated caregivers led by Chief Executive Annette M. Walker, who was recognized by Modern Healthcare as one of the Top 25 Women in Healthcare. SJH has been named a top workplace by Gallup, Orange County Business Journal, Orange County Register and Becker’s Hospital Review.

In July 2016, St. Joseph Health and Providence Health & Services came together to form a new parent organization, Providence St. Joseph Health. PSJH, and its family of organizations, consists of 111,000 caregivers serving in 50 hospitals and 829 clinics across seven states. PSJH is led by President and CEO, Rod Hochman, MD.

WHAT DRIVES US

Our mission, vision and values work together to shape our decisions and guide our actions. They form the heart of our health care ministry.

- Our Mission is to extend the healing ministry of Jesus in the tradition of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange by continually improving the health and quality of life of people in the communities we serve.
- Our Vision is to bring people together to provide compassionate care, promote health improvement and create healthy communities.
- SJH is transforming to embrace an illness and wellness model and realize a greater balance between hospitals and community-based care. The intent is to become networks of care, addressing the well and the sick.
- The four core Values of SJH serve as the guiding principles for all we do, shaping our interactions with those whom we are privileged to serve.
  - DIGNITY - We respect each person as an inherently valuable member of the human community and as a unique expression of life.
  - SERVICE - We bring people together who recognize that every interaction is a unique opportunity to serve one another, the community, and society.
  - EXCELLENCE - We foster personal and professional development, accountability, innovation, teamwork, and commitment to quality.
  - JUSTICE - We advocate for systems and structures that are attuned to the needs of the vulnerable and disadvantaged and that promote a sense of community among all persons.
